MANUAL FOR JUNIOR CLASSES, 1906-7 (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Manual for Junior Classes, 1906-7 To our Brethren: In presenting to you the one branch of study embraced in this Manual, The Life of Jesus, the committee has had several objects in view. In the first place it was thought that a saving of energy would be secured by concentration of effort on one line of work. One brief session a week will scarcely admit of the full treatment of more than one main subject, together with the auxiliary topics and matters of business properly pertaining to a Mutual Improvement Association. The value of a mixed course in schools where daily sessions are held, is acknowledged by all teachers; but under the circumstances which surround you, concentration of effort seems to us the course of wisdom. Not that we wish you rigidly to exclude all other matters from your meetings. The course of study itself is richly suggestive of branch lines of work, in the investigation of contemporaneous history, philosophy, politics, religion, etc., and much of this work is set forth in the notes. Besides, topics of the times, association business, etc., will profitably fill up whatever space of time may remain after the treatment of the chief subject. Secondly, it has been thought that greater thoroughness of study will be secured by such concentration. We desire that all the members of our associations shall plow deep. This habit, as opposed to the harmful one of skimming, is one of the most valuable mental habits to be gained by any young man. It is hoped that the fixing of the mind on one principal line of study will help to cultivate this habit. Again, the...
