Show us the Father and it will satisfy us, is more than another scripture, it s a prophetic key to your future. The cry for recognition can be heard in every facet of our society. Children always perform better when a parent is watching. The interest of a parent or even a spiritual parent lifts the confidence of a child. In this book we will raise the hearts of the displaced sons and daughters. Preparation must never be underemphasized. In the sports world, if an athlete is placed in a competitive environment that is below him, it can hurt his future. In the developing years it s important to have A level people around you before the bad habits set in. World class Christians are developed in the right atmosphere. Show Us the Father will reveal the significance of a fathering environment for today s leaders. Dr. Bill has been in pastoral and evangelistic ministry since 1981. In 1985 he married his wife Anne and together they joined forces in the ministry. After years of education, from both academic and life, they currently, along with their three children Ryan, Marcus, and Christopher serve the Body of Christ through a growing multi-campus church and Christian school. Over the last ten years Bill and Anne have largely focused their ministry on developing leaders. They strongly believe that small group ministry is where true mentorship takes place. Recently, Bill and Anne took the ministry to another level by emerging a new area of ministry, the LA or Leadership Advantage, in churches across the nation planting within them the vision for real spiritual fatherhood. They truly believe nothing is impossible...
