Excerpt: .a perfect Father, as were all other events; and he submitted to it humbly, but with a bright hope and full trust. He died in Beverly, on the 15th of March, 1833, at the advanced age of 84. Dr. Abner Howe was born in Jaffrey, N. H. in 1781. His father was an eminent and much-respected physician of that place. He graduated at Dartmouth College in 1801. Having an early predilection for the medical profession, he devoted himself with ardor to its study, under the distinguished Professor Smith, at Dartmouth. He also, for several months, attended the hospitals of Philadelphia, and the lectures for which that city was then, as it is now, noted, --enjoying, at the same time, the private instruction of the celebrated Dr. Rush. He commenced practice in his native town, as a surgeon and consulting physician, but soon removed to...
