God reward you, said Seamas, I shall not forget your kindness to me. 1 It is not worth while talking of that, said Peadar. Good-bye, and may you succeed in life! 2 That is as God wills3 it, said the other; however, I must be shortening the journey now, The night was still and calm. The moon was high in the heavens. The road was dry, and beneath his feet the dead6 leaves rustled. In the silence6 he could hear his heart beat loudly. He dared not look back. Behind him was home and peace: before him the wide world. 85. He came quickly in, but no sooner did he see the priest than he...
